This game was my first one in the Hunter series and I'd played it a lot even before I actually got it on Steam to support the devs. I really loved this game, but everything changed when I tried the Hunter Classic. Now I can't see Call of the Wild with the same eyes as before. The Hunter Classic is so much better it hurts. More realistic, more filled with content, more diverse and complex, more stable and with less bugs and I would even say more graphic. Because to comfortably play Call of the Wild on Ultra settings you need a much better PC than for the Classic, and when you lower the graphic settings to get more fps, its quality seriously drops compared to the first game.

But actually it's not a bad game, it's just not as good as the Hunter Classic and more arcade, so I would recommend it as a gateway for hunting simulators to inexperienced players with good gaming PCs. Hunting animals is easy here and having decent hardware allows you to enjoy spectacular environments. Maybe after you get acquainted with hunting here, you would easier transit to the Classic which is the true good hunting game.. A good relaxing puzzle game. The entire goal is to wrap the object with a limited amount of rope. The rope will 'paint' the area around it, and you need to cover as much of the object with paint you can. Music is calm and lovely as you work to wrap various wooden objects : people, animals, objects, etc.

Lots of levels and very relaxing for five bucks.. This stupid game don't even open. This is a pretty fun MMO. It's not super fancy like the rest and it's pretty laid back from what i've played so far.

All-in-all I've played A LOT worse MMOs.. Trillions of possibilities is most likely an understatement. Warsim is difficult but genius nonetheless. It reminds me of a running Dwarf Fortress that takes out some of the exploration in exchange for elevating the player instantly to King.. Varenje is a fun game where you find and collect items and solve puzzles. I enjoyed the colorful art. I tried it free to play and will be purchasing the full game.. Pros

- + Simple and Fun
- + Lots of levels to explore
- + Looks great, love the design
- + Has multiplayer
- + Game keeps your attention for hours

Cons

- Can get a little repetitive
- Wish there were a few more spider models. I highly recommend this game, the replay ability is so great. the dlc is bought by IGC, the gameplay is really good, the farming is rewarding, the build system is so expensive, the game room shop is a great challenge for completionist, one downside the gameplay is the smallest bit repetitive and the small range of achievements.. The game gives very basic instructions about how things should be divided, and starts off simple. With each increasing level it gives different blocks to place, or has you place them in different orders.

Maybe a little bit pricey but really good music. Minor stuff like these are skippable. Unless you have the ambitious trait. Wait for a sale though.. Nonsense coming in from the bottom of the screen is annoying.

Other than that., it's a very short game, with no real "lose" factor., it's boring and slow., though unlocking the achievements and comics gives a few minutes of fun.

You're better off playing something else though.

This game is a free flash game, turned into a paid steam game.. The WWE 2K19 Accelerator does exactly what it states; It unlocks all the wrestlers and alternate attires without you having to do the grinding for credits to purchase them. Considering that there are no objectives or in game challenges to unlock any of these things it doesn't take away from the game-play or skip progressions applying the Accelerator. I would recommend using the Accelerator and dumping any credits earned into your myCareer wrestler.. ever wonder what iceage Vikings woulda been like? Now you know BADASS!!!. If You enjoyed Defend the Highlands then you are guaranteed to enjoy this as well. It's pretty much the same game, but with some fantastic new weapons, and friends and foes, set in various countries around the world. It's great fun playing on levels that feature the Eiffel tower Sydney Harbour bridge and lots of other famous landmarks.

For anyone new to the games, it is Tower Defense meets Real Time Strategy, but done in a way that is just different enough to any other game of this type that you might have played. For people who are easily offended by nationality stereotyping and occassional offensive language then perhaps steer clear, but for anyone else who actually has a sense of humour and likes their humour just a bit on the 'wrong-side', they will find much to make them smile\laugh. There are a few times where I caught myself thinking "Did I just hear that right?".

IMPROVEMENTS

- I think overall the upgrade system is better, and you notice much more the positive effects of your upgrades.
- level design is good, with a great variety requiring you to evolve your strategy as the game progresses. I thought level design was good in the first game, but it seems to be even better this time around
- No bagpipes - well there are a few, but you no longer need to have your scotsmen play bagpipes to summon more Scotsmen. Now you attach your men to a large gear which spins a fan creating an updraft which Scotsmen can parachute down. The more Scotsmen you attach to the fan , the faster it goes, and the faster you get recruits. While the logic of this is crazy - it is a much better game mechanic, and means you have more scotsmen available for deploying on the battlefield (and you will need them).
- New weapons\gadgets are all fantastic. They really add to the gameplay and are quite diverse. It would spoil the game to go into detail about what these do, but they really do give you a lot to play with and try a number of different approaches. I still found the turnip gun & porridge cannons to be my primary weapons, but I had to experiment with strategies for using the new weapons to help me to get through the more difficult levels.
- Animation and model quality is better this time around. It was adequate in the first game (but still hilarious where you were laughing with it, not at it) , but you can see a real improvement in this game.

BAD STUFF

Nothing ! I love this game. However there were a few bugs noticed, and as this game is in early release at the time of reviewing, I will detail them for the benefit of the developer.

- Scotmen pathfinding - sometimes a scotsman will get stuck behind a barrier, usually if there are other scotsmen nearby, ie. in his path. This happened often enough to notice but not often enough to really ruin the gaming experience. Happens when in really close proximity to other scotsmen. Mostly seemed to happen against the sandbag barriers.
- Some levels have quite high terrain, and the camera can be difficult to control when you move over the high areas. Normally the camera stays zoomed out at the level that you have set with the mouse wheel, but on a high point the camera would suddenly zoom in too low, and so you would have to zoom out again. The result - as you pan from high to low and back again, and vice-versa - the camera starts behaving like a yo-yo. On some levels like Vesuvius I think it would have been helpful to let the camera actually zoom out a bit further, because it gets pretty close to the ground when you are hovering over your factory on this level.

Thats about it really. Most times I was too frantic trying to build up my defenses to notice anything. You end up playing the game zoomed out quite far, however there were still times when I had time to zoom in and watch the animations which are hilarious.

Took me 10 hours to get through the whole thing, and I think that is awesome value for a game of this price. Don't wait for it to go on sale, I highly recommended to anyone who enjoys tower defense\RTS games, and it should be a certain buy for any fans of the first game. Don't let early release put you off. This game - minus a few bug fixes - is completely playable from beginning to end.. SOOOOOOOOOO cool. This "tech demo" as it is right now has a unique freedom of movement. i love the wings and suggest adding wing suit alternative costume or maybe a pair of lazer blue jet airplane wings, maybe some rings to fly through for trick flying games. Obvoiusly if dogfighting multiplayer rooms were added some day this game could make some real cash. Totaly still in development dont expect a goal or score yet but it is liberating to rocket to the top of the map then use the wings to glide down and land like a bird. MUST TRY. --support this dev!--
